

Six Areas of Adjustment for First-Year College Students

	Academic	Cultural	Emotional	Financial	Intellectual	Social
What is it?	 Students will take a more active role in their learning than they had to in high school and have the ability and know-how to meet the increasing demands of college.	 Students will interact with others of various cultures, religious beliefs, sexual identities and orientations, ages, and abilities, in a variety of settings.	 Students will need to be prepared for the stressors of college and develop habits and behaviors to cope with these changes.	 Students will need to demonstrate basic financial literacy, an understanding of the costs of colleges, and methods for paying for those costs.	 Students will have the opportunity to join an academic community that includes fellow classmates, faculty, and college administrators.	 Students will be faced with shifts in their relationships, finding a new peer group and handling the pressure of fitting in.
